

If you couldn't work, could you pay your bills?

Help protect your finances with Long Term Disability Insurance from Unum.

Savings aren't always enough.

Dave is an office manager for an accounting firm. On weekends, he enjoys do-ityourself projects. If he has a serious accident at home and can't work, he doesn't want his family's finances to suffer — or to use up his savings — while he recovers.

Keep your finances on track

If a sudden illness or injury temporarily disrupts your life, disability benefits can help protect a portion of your income — and your family's financial security.* With disability coverage, you can have money coming in when your paycheck is not, to help cover your bills and protect your savings.

If a disability kept you from earning an income, how would you pay for:

 Mortgage/rent Car insurance Groceries Medical bills Utilities Credit card bills

Some common conditions that can interrupt your ability to earn an income:1

· Cardiovascular problems Cancer Back disorders loint disorders

 Injuries · Behavioral issues

What's the risk?

Consider the true odds of becoming disabled. Can you afford not to be protected?

One in four

The Social Security Administration estimates that just over one in four of today's 20-year-olds will become disabled before reaching age 67.2

90% of households say that they would suffer financial hardship if they were disabled and unable to work for a year.3

Extra features that add value

This coverage may come with other valuable features, including:

Work-life balance employee assistance program

Access to master's-level consultants who can help with everyday issues — or more serious problems, such as divorce or addiction. Available online or over the phone, 24 hours a day.

Worldwide emergency travel assistance program

Emergency medical help is a phone call away any time you or family members are in another country or traveling 100 or more miles from home.

Survivor benefit

If you were to die while out of work on a disability claim, your survivor could receive a lump-sum benefit. This benefit is not subject to any deductions.

Accelerated (early) survivor benefit

You may request some or all of your benefit if you have been diagnosed with a terminal illness, and your life expectancy is less than 12 months.

Rehabilitation and return-to-work assistance

Unum also provides the vital support and services you need to get back to work and to a productive lifestyle. If you are deemed eligible and are participating in the rehabilitation and return-to-work program, Unum will pay an additional benefit of 10% of your gross disability payment to a maximum of $1,000 per month.

What do these terms mean?
